tions.

“69-A. Power to suspend any resolution or order of the Corporation.—

The Divisional Commissioner may, by order in writing, suspend the execution of any resolution or order of the Corporation, or its committee or prohibit the doing of any act which is about to be done, or is being done in pursuance of or under the cover of this Act, or in pursuance of any sanction or permission granted by the Corporation in exercise of the powers under this Act, if, in his opinion, the resolution, order or act is in excess of the powers conferred by law or contrary to the interests of the public or likely to cause waste or damage of Corporation funds or property, or the execution of the resolution or order, or the doing of the act, is likely to lead to a breach of the peace, to encourage lawlessness or to cause injury or annoyance to the public or to any class or body of persons.

69-B. Extra-ordinary power of the Divisional Commissioner in cases of emergency.—(1) In case of emergency, the Divisional Commissioner may provide for the execution of any work or the doing of any act, which the Corporation is empowered to execute or do, and the immediate execution or doing of which is, in his opinion, necessary for the service or safety of the public, and may direct that the expense of executing the work or of doing the act shall be forthwith paid by the Corporation.

(2) Should the expense be not so paid, the Divisional Commissioner may make an order directing the person having the custody of the balance of the Corporation fund to pay the expense, of so much thereof as may, from time to time, be possible, from that balance, in priority to all other charges against the same.

69-C. Power to provide for performance of duties in case of default.—

(1) When the Divisional Commissioner, after due inquiry is satisfied that the Corporation has made default in performing any duty imposed upon it by this Act, or by any order or rule made under this Act, he may by an order in writing fix a period for the performance of that duty, and should it not be performed within the period so fixed, he may appoint some person to perform it, and may direct that the expense thereof shall be paid by the Corporation within such time as he may fix.

(2) Should the expense be not so paid, the Divisional Commissioner may make an order directing the person having the custody of the balance of the Corporation fund to pay expense, or so much thereof as may, from time to time, be possible, from that balance, in priority to all other charges against the same.

69-D. Action of Divisional Commissioner to be immediately reported.—

When the Divisional Commissioner makes an order under section 69-A, section 69-B, or section 69-C, he shall forthwith forward to the State Government a copy thereof, with a statement of the reasons for making it, and with such explanation, if any, as the Corporation may wish to offer.

69-E. Power of State Government and its officers over Corporation.—(1) The State Government and the Divisional Commissioner, acting under the orders of the State Government, shall be bound to require that proceedings of the Corporation shall be in conformity with the law for the time being applicable to the area over which the Corporation has authority.

- (2) The State Government may exercise all powers necessary for the performance of the duty, and may among other things by order in writing annul or modify any proceeding which it may consider not in conformity with the law or for the reason which would, in its opinion, justify an order by the Divisional Commissioner under section 69-A."
